Raven Riders

INTRODUCTION

A female riding group created to foster a safe and supportive environment for females who want to ride.

We have zero tolerance for impaired riding

We actively encourage self reliance for all riders by holding workshops and supplying space and tools to carry out maintenance and repairs.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership gives the individual the right to wear group logo and participate in all group rides

Members may put forward charities for consideration for fund raisers

Members may use tools (under supervision) for repairs and maintenance.

Reduced fees for any workshops where a fee is payable

Short term storage of bike for emergency

Members may be invited to participate in larger group rides with other groups/clubs

Members may be invited to participate in other social activities with other groups/clubs

DUES

Raven Riders is a not for profit group.

Dues are collected only to offset costs Current fees are $ per month.

Dues are set once a year and are payable either annually in advance or by pre paid (cheque or deposit) by the first of each month
